THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

FROM OUR GENERAL NEWS REPORTER.

CINCINSATI, June 2, 1856. Boats from Kentucky and Ohio towns along the river are arriving this morning thronged with passengers. It is supposed that twenty thousand strangers are in the city, and cars and boats are momentarily arriving with more. The Burnet House has three thousand cots in an adjoining warehouse. All the totals are overflowing, and many designes have taken quarters in private houses. The Press is largely represented, one hundred and sixty applications having been made for reporter's decks. The Convention assembles at 12 o'clock.

The Bu thanan men are very confident this morning. Each of the contesting delegations from New York have pamphlets in circulation urging their respective

Hatch, and other leaders of the softe advocate perfect silence, until after the meeting of the Convention, bo has to the choice and resolutions of their delegations. The hards are out spoken in favor of hanan, and have read out the resolutions of their State Convention, with the preamble annexed, which is as

To the ord that there may be no mistake in the minds of any of the delegates to the National Democratic Convention in regard to our political prin tiples here or one held, now held, and hereafter to be held and acted upon, both here and within our own fitting estream of the theorem of the delegation of any sympathy for or connection with Know Nothingians, a called, freed-ottism or any other point at imm—therefore, as.

On motion of Jao, A. Green, of New York, the following was unanimously adopted:-

Resolved, that the satisful delegates of the State of New York recognize regularis the National Democratic Convention, and its full power ω nominate candidates, and decide upon all the questions of difference in the democratic party of the various as we, and we haven agree to note by their decision, and such as an in a notion in all respects whatever.

The softs have just enade a proposition to divide delegates with the hards, provided the hards will agree that both the existing State organizations shall be abandoned and the party re-organized. The hards declare their in Sention to resolutely reject the proposition. The Massachusets delegation have organized, and elected B. F. Butler, coairman. On a test vote the delegation was found, Pierce 17; Buchanan 9.

Even bets are offered on Buchanan's nomination. He is regarded as inevi able. Tennessee has bargained its vote for the Vice Presidency for Gov. Brown; Mississippi offered the same for Quitmen, but it was too late. The Douglas men refuse to withdraw him. Buchanan gets nine votes from Massachusetts. Indiana votes sure for Buchanan, much to the disgust of Illinois. MEETING OF THE CONVENTION.

At a quarter before 12 c'clock carnon were fired, as signal for the assembling of the Convention. At 12 o'clock precisely the assemblage was called to order by ROBERT MCLANE, of Md.

Mr. RICHARDSON, of Ill., nomina'ed Samuel Medary, of Ohlo, for temporary chairman. Carried unanimously Mr. HALL, of Mass., called for the reading of the call

While the call was being read by Mr. English, of Indiana, a sudden uproar arose at the door of the hall, and a growd rushed into the room, fighting and wrangling in the direct confusion. This crowd proved to be the Benton delegation from Missouri, re-olved to force an entrance by violence. They knocked down the doorkeeper ed in, headed by ex-Governor Prise.

For a few minutes a scene of confusion impossible to describe ensued. Members jumped upon their chairs, and it seemed as though a serious riot was about to take place. After a while, however, quiet was restored and

Mr. McLank of Md. stated that when the credentials of the Missouri delegates were presented, the Committee of Arrangements gave tickets of admission to the dele gation which presented prima facie evidence of theb regular election, and refused them to others. New York also appeared with two sets; but as the committee could not decide which set was entitled to admission, they declined to give tickets to either unless they arranged among themselves, as was done in the case of the Missis egation. Both delegations from New York now awaited admission.

the honor done him. He said he had attended every demometic Convention since the first that nominated Jack son, and had the honor to be a member of that which nominated Franklin Pierce. He commented on the progress of democracy and its extended influence, and be gress of demecracy and its extended influence, and believed that occarional storms in the party were calculated to purify the atmosphere. He thought that they were desimed to triumph, despite temporary quarreis.
The Rev. Mr. Sumonson, of Cincinnati, was then introduced, and delivered a prayer, af er which Mesars. Alex B. Cletheral, of Ala, and W. B. Ritchie, of Va., were elected temporary secretaries.
Mr. A. G. Brown, of Miss., introduced a resolution to admit alternates to sect in the Hall.
Mr. Harms, of Ill., proposed that a certain pro-rata number from each state oc admitted, the Hall not being large enough to accommosate all.
Mr. Canio, of N. C., moved to lay the resolution on the table till the Convention was fully organized. Adopted.
Mr. Harms, of Ill., moved the appointment of a Committee on Credenials, consisting of one delegate from each unsontested State, to be selected by the various delegations.

Mr. BOCOCK, of Va., called attention to the fact that Missouri's seals were contested, and that Missouri had been allowed to appoint a committee man. The Missouri member was concequently withdrawn.

CHARLIS W. WICKLIFFE, of Ky., offered a resolution, assigning unoccupied seals to outside delegates.

Judge Wilson, of Iows, opposed the resolution, on the ground that the last Baltimore Convection was overridden by outside pressure, and all fair representation of States done away with.

Mr. Bittism.—We'll see about that.
Mr. Biotock of Va. held, as a print of order, that the States must be called on the resolution, as demanded by

Mr. Butler. The Convention was bound, in this respect by the rules of the House of Represents ives; that the yeas and mays are always taken in the House woo calle for, and that a call for vives by States in the Convention took the same character as a call for the yeas and may

Col. Black wanted again to prove Pennsylvania's soundness on wornea's rights, and moved that all the front seats in the gallery be appropriated to the ladies. Cries of "No," "No," "No."

Mr. Peter, of Ia, opposed the resolution. He said, if the business of the Convention was the business of the ladies, let them in; but if not, keep them out. He would yield to no man in galiastry.

He would be glad to meet them at all proper times, for all proper purposes; but not as a National Convention. The Buchanan furor is immense. Declarations are everywhere heard that Pennsylvania, Virginia and Onio cannot be carried by any other cardidate.

FROM OUR SPECIAL REPORTER.

CINCINNATI, June 2, 1856. The eventful day has arrived. The streets in the vic nity of the hall where the Convention is he'd wer crowded before noon, and the shops displayed flags of a dimensions. The day was fine—thermometer 85. Th excitement among the outsiders was intense. At noo the doors were opened, and a national salute was fired in Market square, from the Empire Club cannon. The ha is decarated with wreaths of roses and evergreens, an portraits of democratic herces.

Mr. English, of Ind., read the call, which was inter rupted by a tremendous roar. The Beaton delegate from Missouri knocked down the doorkeeper and forced their way into the hall. Fickets had been in sued to the auti-Benton party. The Bentonists made forcible entry amid cries of "Shame," "Put them out, and great confusion. The delegates were frightened and ran from their seats. Three or four delegate jumped upon the chairs, and one of the Missourian drew a revolver, but did not fire. There was an im mense panic; but quiet was soon restored through the doorkeeper. The inside doorkeeper showed fight, an knocked down one of the Missourians, who swore the would go over his dead body. The doorkeeper rejoine "I have got two boys, one named Stephen A. Douglas and I will be d—dif you shall go over my body. He was, however, overwhelmed by numbers.

This little episode was followed by a very long prayer

No New York delegates were admitted, but Capta Rynders was on the platform, and some of the softs he ookouts in the galleries.

After the prayer there was a calm until the State Mississippi was called to present a member of the Codential Committee, when Mr. Hail, a Benton delegate demanded that his delegation should have a show. Mr Richardson, of Illinois, pitched into the Benton men wh had forced their way into the Convention. They were not entitled to the slightest consideration. The Convention should protect itself by inviting them to reliev

The Chair said he could not recognize the persons wh adderced their way into the Convention.

Cries of "Good," and applause.

Mr. Hall again tried to get the floor, but was choke off by cries of "Order," "Go out," "Cut loose."

Bere the delegate who drew the revolver (ex-Governo rice) said, "We bow cheerfully to the decision of th Convention." The Benton delegation then withdress amid loud applause. The appointment of working com mittees was then proceeded with, New York and Missour being left out of the ring. Wisconsin and Connecticut have resolved to support the New York hards and reject the softs. Both delegious will have seats till the report of the Credentia

Committee is made. There was a little breeze when the question was pr on tabling a resolution to appoint a committee on res utions. The Chair and Mr. Hibbard, of New Hampshire had a clash. Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, called for s wote by States, and Mr. Griswold, of the same State, said Massachusetts did not want anything of the kind. But er prevailed, however, and the Cnair "caved in" t Hibbard. Then, after an unsuccessful attempt to ring in the ladies in the galiery, the democracy, in a very bad temper, adjourned till to morrow morning. The session was rather noisy, and does not look well for harmony.

Tom Benten is here, and pronounced this morning in favor of Buchanan. He says that all the trouble in the country ass been made by Pierce and Douglas, and that Buchanan is the only man that can set the the sectional difficulties. Betting to day is even on Buchanan against the delegation from Massachusets met this morning, and decided to cast their votes not as a unit. Tae Pieras and decided to cast their votes not as a unit. Tae Pieras men have a majority. Buchanan will have nine votes on the first ballot. Pieras will get the remainder. The Kentucky delegation are also divided between Buchanan, Douglas and Pieras; they will not vote as a

The Kentucky delegation are also divided between Buchanan, louglas and Pierce; they will not vote as a unit.

The committee on credentials, one from each State, are supposed to be favorable to the softs. The New Yorkers immediately after the adjournment retired from the Hall and I understand are now having a very animated and exofting debate—both nards and softs seem to be in good spirits.

The course pursued by the Benton men from Missouri, in forcing their way into the Convention, will operate unfavorably to them. No one seemed to approve their course—they will be rejected. They are acting under the advice of the Benton, who is now here.

A majority of the Convention are in favor of adopting the plactorm before they make a nomination. This movement was seggested by the Bushanan men, as it was thought that it would operate favorably for him.

The Douglas men decided this moreing not to with draw him from the field. They are going to stand by him to the last.

Col. Orr, who seemed to be the unanimous choice of the Convention for Chairman, has not yet arrived—therefore, they will selects a new man.

The Buchavan men to-day are very sanguine of success, while Douglas and Pierce men say they are gaining on "Old Buck" every hour.

TEN O'CLOCK P. M. The Committee on Credentials have just decided against Benton's faction. A row is anticipated to morow, as an attempt will be made by them to force their way into the Convention. The New York softs are dis-posed to compromise, but the hards contend that they posed to compromise, but the hards contend that they are the only true representatives of the democratis party, and refuse. The exortement is increasing.

The Committee on Resolutions are in seasion, and have not yet finished the piatform.

The Committee on Organization, after a quiet struggle, have sgreed upon Gen. John E. Ward, of Ga., as Predicent of the Convention. He is a member of the bar of that State, and has had experience as a predding officer, having been speaker of the House of Representatives of Georgia. He is an original friend of Bucannaa, though acting, under instructions, to favor of Pierce.

The Committee on Cresentials are now busy on the Missouri coatested election case. To-morrow morning they will hear parties in the New York case. Mr. Bearcalse will agree the case for the hards, and Governor Seymour for the softs. They are to have an hour each.

It is thought that the adoption of the platform will sive rise to con iderable debate. The Bucannan men will strenuously oppose debate.

Sixth Convention of the Grand Nationa -List of the Delegates-Will Millard Fillmore and A. J. Doneison be Endorses?

The delegates elected from the severa' Start throughout the Union to the National Know Nothing Council will assemble this morning, at ten o'clock, a' Enickerbocker Ball, is Eighth avenue, corner of Twenty third street.

The proceedings of the Grand Council will be kept secret, though a strong effort will be made to allow the reporters of the press admission, after the preliminary puripess and necessary work of the Order is transacted. The interest that attaches to this Convention arises The interest that attaches to this convention arises from the fact that the endorsement of Millard Fillmore and A J. Donelson for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, respectively, will come up for action. It has been asserted by the democratic and nigger worshippers' press that Mr. Fillmore is not a Simon Pure third degree Know Nothing, and, therefore, cannot properly be the candidate of the conservative Americans. No coubt but this Convention will inquire into the truth of this charge, and their action must be There is no doubt but that the nomination of Mr. Fill-more will be fually endorsed. The only delegates about whom any doubt is expressed are a few from Ohio and other Western States, with a few scattering ones from Vermont, Connecticut and New Hampshire. The middle and Southern States will vote unsalmously for the endorsement of Mulard Fillmore and Andrew J. Donelson.

The Morning Journal, of the 12th instant, says:-The crops of Trelawny parish will fall comiderably short this year, consequent on the heavy showers which fell last May. The extent to which the sugar estates have suffered may be judged by the fact of a very productive little estate, that formerly averaged eighty hogsheads, making the unprecedented small number of fifty hogsheads this year. The harbor of Falmouth presents a very animated

The harbor of Falmouth presents a very animated appearance.

Hon. C. M. Farquharson has declined the appointment of Puisne Judge under the Judicial Amendment Act, and is not likely to return to the island.

The state of health of the Honorable W. C. Macdongal renders it necessary for him again to try the climase of England.

The same journal of May 10, has the following news summary:—Local occurrences since the sailing of the last packet have been few and unimportant. The most interesting feature is the visit of his Excellency the Governor and Lady Barkly to the parishes of Vere and Clarendon, and their personal sand minute inspection of the Charing Cross and Stamford Hill copper mines.

The occurrence next in point of interest we can mention, is the opening of the Kingston Institution for Training Nurses, which took place on the 2sth ult., in the presence of Lady Barkly.

A Roman Catholic place of worship is in the course of erection in the parish of St. George, about two miles from Buff Bay.

His Excellency the Governor, in reprieving Prince Bell and John Morce, who had been convicted of poisoning, has commuted the extreme sentence to imprisonment and hard labor in the General Penitentary.

A practised offender, George Tuckett, had been

three months hard labor in the Morant Bay district prison.

Compensation had been awarded and paid to owners of property through whose land the Annotto Bay Junction road had to pass, on the award of a Jury specially summoned for the purpose.

His Excellency had, through his secretary, called he attention of the St. Catherines Vestry to the recent law for raising a constabulary in aid of the police force, and recommending the prudence of availing themselves of its provisions.

We have to record the death of A. G. Dignum, Esq., solicitor, Spanish Town.

The damage done by the recent heavy rains is much greater than anticipated. In consequence of the injury sustained by the water works, and at the fountain head of the supply, the troops at Up-Park camp and the inhabitants of this city suffered several days in consequence.

Two children had been fatally struck by lightning at Morant Bay.

From St. James and Trelawny, we are informed that the pastures and cane fields have been materially benefitted, that they look green, cheering and full of promise. What is equally, if not more gratifying is that the laborers are industrious, and that the best feeling prevails between managers and workmen.

A writ of election for the parish of St. John had been issued. In accordance with the writ, Mr. Isaac Levy, of Spanish town, was returned without opposition.

It is with pleasure, amtd the hurry and bustle of arrivals and departures of the many passengers who crowd once more the streets of this little village, that I am again enabled to communicate the movements and passing events which are daily transpiring in our midst. At last-and for the first time for some five or six weeks—we have had a steamer, with passengers and mail matter, from California. The steamship Sierra Nevada, with some six hundred passengers and sixty recruits for our army-having first put into Realejo, o be assured of her safety in landing passengers and troops at San Juan del Sur-arrived at last, amid the joyful acclamations of the garrison and American citizens at that port, and are now in little squads perambulating our streets, and crowding our hotels, in search of refreshment, potative and otherwise, for the inner man.

Having been recently on a short furlough to Granada, I returned to this town last evening on the steamer La Virgen, having on board the passengers for California, who arrived some time back from New York on the steamer Orizaba. They have suffered severely, I am sorry to say, from the acclimatory fever of the country, or calenture, as it is here called, and have also had many deaths from cholera, caused principally by indiscretion in the use of tropical fruits and native liquor; but although many of them are still weak, yet the greater number are convalescent, and when once breathing the balmy and invigorating breezes of the Pacific, will no doubt be restored to perfect health. The troops who recently arrived from New Orleans and New York are now armed, and form the garrison at Granada, under the command of General Fry. They are in tolerably good health, and are daily improving in the drill and discipline se requisite in the varied materiel of a volunteer army. It pains me here to record the death of one of their bravest and most promising officers, Capt. James Walker, a brother of the General's, of fever. After being seized with this fatal malady, he was at the removed to Massaya, a town noted for its healthy climate and the purity of its air, situated some twelve miles from Granada; but, alas too late! The fell beneath the inroads of the fierce malady that had marked him for its prey, and thus Tennessee lost a son of whom she may be proud, and his comrades a brave and true hearted

Our light infantry battalion are stationed at Virgin Bay, which is also the headquarters of the army, under command of Colonel Markham, recently promoted, and who was severely wounded during the late action at Rivas, a most excellent officer and estimable man. It is also at present the residence of General Walker and Brigadier-General Hornsby, commanding the department of Rivas, of which this town forms a portion. The rifle battalion are stationed at San Juan del Sur, under the command of Colonel Sanders at present, but there is a rumer of their removal shortly to Realejo for the rainy season. Thus you will perceive that this little overland road of twelve miles in length is well protected against aggression from an enemy, and scorrely, and, I trust, permanently opened for inter-oceanic communication.

signession from an enemy, and society, and, ricust, permanently opened for inter-oceanic communication.

The rainy season has just commenced, with its varied hours of shower and sunshine, and which will at least ensure one happy issue—the raising of the water in the San Juau river, and the speedy passage of the steamers that navigate it. A new company of rangers, principally from Texas, Mississippi and Arkanasa, has been formed from the troops recently arrived, and under command of General Gorria Courria, our excellent intendencia General, have been scouring the adjoining district of Chontales, in search of a body of Chamoristas, some two or three hundred in number, who, emboldened by the recent invasion of Nicaragua by the Costa Ricans, are still in arms agains us; these, though well furnished with weapons and ammunition, have fied in hot haste to the mountains, before our little ranger band of not over 40 rides, but not without in some cases suffering severely, as much of their property, in the shape of ammunition, forage, arms, and what was of still greater importance, cattle and horses, have been seized and confiscated for the use of the government. Some of the principal native inhabitants of Granada have also been under arrest under suspicion of participation in the acte of these semi-guerrillas, with different results—those proven guilty being heavily fined, but where proof has failed to attach treason, instant dismissal. But in one or two more serious cases we have had more serious results—as, for example, some prisoners who were recently taken on the island of Omotapa, having been proved to have been concerned in the murder of some American refugees, from the invading army of Costa Rica, after a fair investigation, were hung, in the presence of the whole army.

The troops of Costa Rica, in their hurried retreat

tion, were hung, in the presence of the whole army.

The troops of Costa Rica, in their hurried retreat from San Juan del Sur, have suffered horribly from the merciless ravages of the cholers; and from almost every village through which they have passed, at least in the province of Bona Casta, the inhabitants have precipitately evacuated their houses and their homes, in abject fear of this pest—more horrible and desolating in its effects than even war itself. This we have from prisoners brought in, and may be relied on as correct.

A mining company arrived on the last steamer with a quartz mill and all the necessary working tools for a trip to the district of Chontales, and a portion of its members, who have for the last two weeks been out prospecting in the mountain, report very favorably, and have every confidence in their ultimate success and prosperity. Gen. Golcouria, in his late scouting expedition, reports that he has discovered in the district of Chontales one of the most beautiful grazing and farming districts, principally rolling prairie, that the eye ever gazed upon; and, what is still more singular, this tract of land is almost entirely uninhabited, except by a few nomadic Indians of the most abject class.

Although, after the evacuation of Rivas, Virgin Bay and San Juan del Sur by the army of Costa Rica, and on their re-occupation by the army of Nicaragua, our troops suffered somewhat from the scarcity of provisions, owing to the inhabitants in the immediate vicinity having been scared from their haciendas by the invaders, yet now they are daily returning, and supplies of all kinds are more plenty, and we have quite a little market daily.

The town of Rivas had been carefully barricaded, and the walls of its adobe buildings pierced for another defence; but, so fearful were the ravages of disease, caused in part by the miasma arising from the putrescent mass of dead bodies, which, in hasty burial, had been thrown into the wells, and but thinly covered with earth, and so wholesome the lesson taught b

Police Intelligence.

THE WOUNDED BURGLAR—ARREST OF A SUPPOSED ACpolice as to the real character of the man, J. Watson buitz, now lying dangerously wounded at the New York Hospital, from the effects of a gun shot wound. The Hospital, from the effects of a gun shot wound. The story abort his being shot in an affray, at the corner of Catherine and Hamilton streets, as published in Sunday's Highlip, seems to be all a fabrication. Indeed, the evi-dence so far adduced, seems to fasten the orime of burderce so far adduced, seems to fasten the crime of burglary upon the wounded man. George Burns, a friend of Shultz who has been inquiring particularly after the injured man's health every day since the occurrence, has been arrested on suspicion of being an accomplice of Shultz in the burglary committed upon the premises of Mr. Briggs, in Henry street. At the lodgings of the prisoner was found a sarpet bag filled with bloody clothing, and also a stocking, which has been identified by Mr. Briggs' servant girl as the one she had 33 stowed away in, and which was stolen on the night of the burglary from a bureau drawer. The alleged accomplice was brought before Justice Brennau, at the Esser Market Police Court, where he was committed for examination. The physicians at the New York Hospital have but slight hopes of Shultz's recovery.

COMPLAINT DESMISSED.—The complaint for perjury preferred against Alonzo W. Adams, Mary Mulhall and Johanna MoMahon, by John R. Savege, of 314 Broadway, has been dismissed by Justice Davisqu.
